NARRATIVE:

Molina, a documented Pacoima Project Boys gang member, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 20. He has been convicted of robbery-street gang act causing great bodily injury, transporting/selling narcotic controlled substances, felon in possession of a firearm, battery, disobeying court order, under the influence of controlled substance, and fugitive from justice. Molina has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, an eight (8) year term for robbery-street gang act causing great bodily injury. Molina was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 22nd, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Molina absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Molina qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
